

SCHOLARSHIP SEARCH SERVICES

1/1/2016

Brown Sugar & Spice Educational Services

Jacqueline Galloway-Blake, M.A., Educational Consultant

Website: www.brownSSbooks.com

Email: brownSSbooks@hotmail.com

Radio: www.saveourblackboys.net

Cell/Text: (734) 716-0213

SCHOLARSHIP SEARCH SERVICES

BROWN SUGAR & SPICE EDUCATIONAL SERVICES

INITIAL CONVERSATION – This is a guide to become acquainted. Sharing information helps us to more effectively tailor the scholarship search to the individual. For example, there are scholarships for tall people, for African-American males, for residents of a particular city, for students interested in scuba diving, etc. After completing 1, 2,&3, email your answers to me. Then text that you are ready for the initial conversation – FREE session. Text your name and the best day and time for the Free session to (734) 716-0213. Please have note-taking materials available.

Thank-you!

1. Tell us about the student.

a. Personal Attributes

- i. Hobbies
- ii. Skills
- iii. Birth experience and early years
- iv. Health – Physical Characteristics
- v. Physical Challenges
- vi. Musical/athletic ability
- vii. Level of Interest in Personal Reading/Writing
- viii. Character strengths

b. Academic Background

- i. GPA - current
- ii. Standardized Test Scores
- iii. Favorite Subjects
- iv. K-8 performance or highest schooling level performance

c. Work & Community Service

- i. Careers and/or work experience
- ii. Volunteer and service experience in home, church, and community.

d. Pre-College Preparation

- i. ACT/SAT Scores or projected test-taking dates
- ii. Advanced Placement Classes
- iii. Dual Enrollment
- iv. Career Choice
- v. College Choices
- vi. Scholarships already applied for
- vii. Preferred College Major

2. Parent or Student Questions

- e. Complete FAFSA yet?
- f. Do you have a record-keeping file for student's school records/work/community service?
- g. What do you hope to accomplish from this scholarship search?
- h. Parents' College Experience

3. Writing Sample – Student, please write a short paragraph on “if you were president of USA, how would you enhance education in the country.”